I am a PhD Candidate at Leiden University's Institute for Tax Law and Economics in the GLOBTAXGOV Project (since 2018, prospectively until 2023). My research focusses on policies against corporate tax avoidance, the influence of international norms in the Global South and tax policy for development. I work in an interdisciplinary way and I aim at contributing to the state of the art in political science and tax law scholarship. My PhD thesis is supervised by Prof. Dr. Irma Mosquera and Prof. Dr. Madeleine Hosli.
